

2010 Henry County Equestrian Ambassador Application

The contest will be held Saturday, June 19th at 6:30 PM at the Farm Bureau Building in Cambridge and Tuesday, June 22nd, 6 PM, at the horse arena on the Henry County Fairgrounds.

Contestants must be a Henry County resident, a Henry County 4-H member or an FFA member, each currently participating in a program with a horse project.

The contest is open to males and females.

Contestants must be between 15 and 20 years of age.

The ambassador must be single, have never been married, not currently pregnant and have never borne a child. The horse ambassador should never have been convicted of a felony offense and if they should win will voluntarily surrender the title, and any trophy's and other gifts, sash, tiara, cap and any other gifts connected with the title. If convicted of a felony or misdemeanor while ambassador, the above also applies. The ambassador may not enter any other pageant while serving or hold any other titles.

On Saturday, June 5th at 1 PM the contestant will be required to attend a mandatory meeting concerning expectations and rules at Pizza Hut in Geneseo.

On June 19th the contestant must give a three to five minute demonstration speech on any equine topic.

On June 22^{3rd} the contestant must be able to demonstrate a simple trail pattern.

Contestants should wear proper show attire.

The ambassador is required to assist with all fair horse events (i.e. the 4-H horse show, Draft Horse Pulls, mini horse show, fun show and the open horse show).

Contestants must also be willing to participate in at least three horse events other than the fair one of which will be an educational presentation concerning horses.

The title cannot be repeated.

If selected, the contestant will receive a trophy, sash, tiara (girl), cap (boy) and other gifts.
